

THE FUTURE OF FORESTRY IS BRIGHT

Why work in forestry?

Have a wide range of opportunities to do meaningful work

Play a role in a sustainable future

Experience leading-edge technology and innovation

DID YOU KNOW?

Alberta's forestry industry has great opportunities for young people. It provides an average annual compensation of approximately

$62,317

to those under 25.

31,500+

people work in Alberta's forestry industry.

16,500+

directly in the industry

15,000+

spin-off jobs

11,600

Indigenous people work in Canada's forestry sector

1,400+

Indigenous-owned businesses operate in the forestry sector

THERE'S A PLACE FOR EVERYONE IN FORESTRY

Jobs in forestry are diverse, with career paths spanning both the outdoors and indoors. There are rewarding opportunities in:

Engineering

Forestry

Operations

Sciences

Office

Trades

FORESTRY IS FULL OF EXCITING CAREER PATHS.

Find one you're interested in with our career quiz.

FORESTRY FAST FACTS

Jobs in forestry are diverse, with career paths spanning both the outdoors and indoors.

40% of Canada's surface area is covered by forests

Canada has 362 million hectares of forest

3rd largest forest area in the world

FORESTRY BOOSTS OUR ECONOMY

Did you know Canada's forestry industry is one of the most successful in the world? It adds more to our country's GDP than plastics, aerospace, and chemical industries. Alberta's forest industry generates:

$5.8 billion in annual revenue

$13.6 billion in economic outputs

$2.7 billion in labour income

FORESTRY LEADS ON SUSTAINABILITY

100 million seedlings on average are planted in Alberta every year

Alberta grows 3 trees for every one harvested

The forest industry is 60% fueled by renewable energy

WORKWILD.CA

READY TO JOIN THE HARD-WORKING PEOPLE WHO MAKE THIS AWESOME INDUSTRY WHAT IT IS?
START YOUR JOB SEARCH NOW.

